1st Call for proposals: IDEA-League Fellowships 2024 –
Scholarship program for outgoing scientists to encourage research collaboration at other IDEA League universities with special focus on the use of research infrastructure (RI)

Deadline: December 12, 2023

Background

The five IDEA-League universities have agreed on a fellowship program to strengthen scientific exchange, long-term collaboration, and the use of specific research infrastructure (RI). Each IDEA-League university conducts the fellowship calls autonomously and sets its own priorities.

The IDEA-League Fellowships enable scientists to carry out research activities of their own choice in collaboration with the respective host institute at ideally two or more universities of the alliance. In addition to establishing long-term collaboration, the use of research infrastructure should also be targeted.
